4 FAH-1 H-310 ALLOTMENT AUTHORITY AND ALLOTMENT AND OPERATING ALLOWANCE CODES

(CT:FMH-56; 06-15-2007)
(Office of Origin: RM/FPRA/FPMC)

4 FAH-1 H-311 PURPOSE

(TL:FMH-1; 04-15-1994)

a. Uniform codes are prescribed for:

- (1) Allotment authorities;
- (2) Allotments and operating allowances to facilitate the processing and accounting for funds authorized;
- (3) Obligations and expenditures; and
- (4) Balances under each of the categories.

See 4 FAM 200 for allotment accounting procedures and policy.

b. Allotment authority codes in the 4X00 and 5X00 for regional bureaus, 4 FAH-1 H-316, and 60XX series for other offices, 4 FAH-1 H-317, are required for processing, controlling, and reporting financial resources made available to financial coordinators and/or managers. These allotment authority codes must be recorded in the allotment authority documents issued to financial coordinators and from copies of these documents into the automated financial management system.

4 FAH-1 H-312 STRUCTURE OF CODES

(CT:FMH-56; 06-15-2007)

- a. The allotment codes are arranged into four broad groups as follows for all appropriations and funds:

(1)	Domestic Expense	10XX;
(2)	Expenses Abroad	Washington-held—20XX;
(3)	Expenses Abroad	Posts; functional and regional bureaus—0XXX, 1XXX, 2XXX, 3XXX, 4XXX, 5XXX, 6XXX, DXXX , EXXX , MXXX , RXXX ; and
(4)	Worldwide Expense	Allotment authorities and Washington-held—60XX
1st digit	Identifies whether (1) domestic; (2) Washington-held abroad; (0), (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (D) , (E) , (M) and (R) posts abroad; and (7), (8) and (9) memorandum accounts and special accounting and/or reporting codes.
2nd digit	Where other than a zero, identifies the regional area involved.
3rd and 4th digits	Program, office, or country identification.

- b. Memorandum accounts and special accounting/reporting codes are used in the allotment code field of certain accounting records and reports as shown in 4 FAH-1 H-320. Operating allowances authorized by certain allottees are also identified by six-digit codes.

4 FAH-1 H-313 DOMESTIC EXPENSE (10XX SERIES)

(CT:FMH-56; 06-15-2007)

Allotments made to bureaus and offices for domestic expense, and all appropriations and funds will be identified by the four-digit allotment codes prescribed in this series. These include miscellaneous salaries, temporary duty travel, and other program and related office expenses, except as otherwise specified. The organization codes for expenses under the allotments below are shown in 4 FAH-1 H-421.

NOTES:

<sup>2</sup> Converted to operating allowance 7/1/68. See 4 FAH-1 H-317, Allotment 6091. Also converted from 1097 to 609101 as of April 28, 2007.

<sup>4</sup> Memorandum and/or Control Account Number 7777 is used in the allotment field by IRM and HR/EX/IM for other agencies' organization codes and special account numbers.

Allotments With Operating Allowances and Other Expenses—Except for those listed below, the above allotments are issued to cover only domestic miscellaneous salaries and other expenses of the bureaus and offices. The allotments with operating allowances are used for funding purposes only, and the operating allowances as indicated are used for coding fiscal documents. The detail organization codes for expense, including premium pay for the following operating allowances, are shown under 4 FAH-1 H-420 for the respective offices and suborganization units.

Four-digit operating allowance codes 17XX, 1097, 2080, 6034, and 6035 are discontinued effective April 28, 2007 and are replaced by six-digit codes 10XXXX and 6091XX listed below. Funding and open obligations converted from the Central Financial Management System (CFMS) to the Global Financial Management System (GFMS) will contain the new six-digit codes. Payroll/personnel transactions will continue to use the four-digit operating allowance codes. The payroll accounting transactions for these entries will be converted to the six-digit codes during the interface process into GFMS.

4 FAH-1 H-314 WASHINGTON-HELD EXPENSES ABROAD (20XX SERIES)

(CT:FMH-56; 06-15-2007)

Allotments made to bureaus and offices, other than to regional bureaus, for expenses abroad, which will be obligated in Washington, D.C. are identified by the four-digit allotment codes prescribed in this series. Exception has been made in the case of the regional bureaus because of the need to identify “program” and “International Cooperative Administration Support Services (ICASS)” expenses separately for salaries and expenses (S&E) and to permit summarization of post and Washington-held funds available, obligations, and expenditures under S&E against a single allotment authority issued to each regional bureau.

4 FAH-1 H-315 EXPENSES ABROAD, POSTS (0XXX, 1XXX, 3XXX, DXXX, EXXX, MXXX, AND RXXX SERIES)

(CT:FMH-56; 06-15-2007)

- a. Allotments made to posts by bureaus and offices are identified by these code series for all appropriations and funds involved, except those issued by the regional bureaus, which are identified in the 4XXX and 5XXX series, and those issued by the Bureau of Overseas Buildings Operations (OBO) in the 2XXX and 6XXX series commencing October 1, 1990.
- b. The codes are completed by incorporating the geographic area and country codes as the second, third, and fourth digits. See Post Funding Codes Abroad in 4 FAH-1 H-430.
- c. The following special allotments have been established, in addition to those post allotments within the coding structure defined above, in order to provide different allotment codes when more than one allotment for the appropriations and bureaus are required at the same location.

4 FAH-1 H-316 REGIONAL BUREAU ALLOTMENTS (4XXX AND 5XXX SERIES)

(CT:FMH-56; 06-15-2007)

- a. The post allotment codes are completed by assigning identifying country codes. See Post Funding Codes Abroad in 4 FAH-1 H-400.
- b. The regional bureau salaries and expenses (S&E) allotment authorities are for allotments for posts' administrative expenses, either State direct or International Cooperative Administrative Support Services (ICASS), such as personal service costs for both Foreign Service nationals and U.S. employees (except base pay, post differential, and charge pay for U.S. citizens abroad), allowances for U.S. employees, official residence costs, and all "other object" costs. Included as "other object" costs are maintenance, repairs, and replacement of furniture, furnishings, and equipment and building operating expenses.

- c. Funds are also allotted for expenses abroad principally obligated in Washington, such as regional travel, Marine security guard clothing and purchase of security equipment. These allotments are not used for hospitalization expenses (6025), reimbursable details (6034), or other items of expense chargeable to allotments in 4 FAH-1 H-314 and 4 FAH-1 H-315. In addition to allotments of S&E funds, allotments of other funds are made to posts by regional bureaus in the 4XXX series. The bureaus allot funds for representation allowances under Appropriation 19_0545. ICASS will be allotted funds for administrative support services abroad under appropriation 19X4519.1.
